

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County
CANTERBURY GREEN

Eugene Scranton Enters Backus Hospital—Anti-Suffragist to Address the Grange.

The subject of last Sunday's sermon was borrowed from Dr. R. H. Potter of Hartford, "The Place for a Church" text from Rev. 2:13, "Where thou dwellest, there shall thine altar be."

The subject of next Sunday's Christian Endeavor meeting is "The Christian Endeavor Pledge, Pa. 6:11-8. Leader, Frank Hoxie. Time 7 p. m. The Ladies' society will meet next Tuesday afternoon from 2-5 with Mrs. Fred Graves of Black Hill.

Mrs. Everett Stanton of Voluntown is visiting Mrs. James Scranton.

Taken to Hospital.

Eugene Scranton of Black Hill has been taken to the Backus hospital in Norwich.

School on the Green opened again this week after a four days' vacation because of chicken pox.

Children of the Black Hill school are suffering from measles. The school has been closed.

Herbert Williams of the Green and his daughter, Miss Inez are spending a few days in Hartford.

Will H. Grange.

Miss Elizabeth Burnett of Hartford will speak on Anti-Suffrage at the Grange Wednesday night. Mrs. Walter Bartlett of Putnam spoke a few weeks ago on the side of Suffrage and was greeted by an interested audience.

Miss Burnett's address Wednesday evening will arouse perhaps equal interest. The meeting is an open one during the lecturer's hours.

ELMVILLE

Death of Mrs. Andrew Higgins—New Engine for Mill.

Mrs. Frank Greenleaf and son, of Pawtucket, R. I., and Mrs. Ida Kennedy and son, of Putnam, called on Mrs. Alfred Potter Sunday afternoon.

Linder Gallup of Danielson spent a day recently with his aunt, Mrs. Addie E. Call.

Clayton Wright and Judson Barrows attended the Poultry show in Providence Friday.

J. H. Milligan has a new touring car.

Mrs. R. C. Rawson has returned from a visit with her son in Worcester.

Mrs. Herbert Hopkins has been at Oakland Beach for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mowry visited Neponset friends Sunday.

Mrs. James Kent and George W. Kent spent Wednesday in Norwich.

Miss May Moore of Westerly was a recent guest of Mrs. Timothy McCarty.

Mrs. Higgins Died.

Mrs. Andrew Higgins died at her home here last week after a long illness. She leaves her husband and a sister, Mrs. Woodcock.

George W. Kent went to Mystic Tuesday evening with the Danielson basketball team.

Harry Greenleaf of Pawtucket, R. I., and Norman Kennedy of Putnam were at Mrs. Addie E. Call's Sunday afternoon.

A. H. Bailey and family motored to Muncipal Valley.

The Cornhill worked mill is to have a new engine.

EKONK

Rev. S. B. Carter of Plainfield preached a helpful sermon here on Sunday.

Mrs. Edward Gallup and Miss Nellor, our teachers, spent Monday in Danielson and attended the theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frink and Miss Amy Gallup attended the funeral of Edward Palmer in Plainfield Saturday.

Walter Frink and Miss May Underwood of Oneco who were married recently and are making their home with Mr. Frink's mother.

Emily Hopkins spent Saturday with Florence Gallup.

Mrs. Albert Brown returned home from Danielson Friday. Her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Gallup has taken her infant, who is very ill, to a Hartford hospital.

Miss Elizabeth Burnett, an anti-suffragist, will lecture in Grange hall next Friday evening.

Mrs. Byron Gallup made a flying trip to Danielson Friday. She is entertaining her sister, Miss Amy Gallup, this week.

Julia Sayles went Monday to Norwich to enter the Business college.

Mrs. Hattie Tanner and Miss Margaret Tanner spent four days last week in Plainfield.

WESTMINSTER

Services Sunday were held as usual, at 11 a. m. followed by the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor service at 7 p. m. A larger congregation at each service is stimulating to the pastor, as well as to each present.

Christmas preparations are well under way.

Eleven ladies made merry with work and refreshments at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon. It being the first meeting of the Ladies' Aid society held there since the departure of the former pastor.

Some of the W. C. T. U. members were disappointed in not being able to attend the regular meeting by Wednesday's storm.

Mr. Boose is staying at his farm, which was favorably taken care of by Thomas McCann.

Miss Frances Wedge is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. St. John.

Mrs. Clifford N. Raymond of East Hampton is a guest at Rosedale.

ONECO

Fred Mumford of Hope, R. I., spent last Sunday with his brother, Ed Mumford.

Charles Hesse of New Jersey spent

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

over last Sunday with the family of Fred Whitford.

Mrs. Charles Spaulding and sister, Mrs. J. Doughty, were guests Sunday of Mrs. Mary Jones at Moosup.

Orin E. Kenyon was home last Sunday for the day.

Monroe Kenyon cut his leg Monday afternoon. Dr. Adams took a stitch in it.

DAYVILLE

Post Office Moved to New Location in the Riley Block.

Mrs. Amelia Cutler spent the week end with her sister in Putnam.

Mrs. Steinbeau has been entertaining Miss Gladys Alexander of Norwich.

Willard Bennett spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Bennett.

Mrs. Frederick Rogers and Miss Rodding of Providence, R. I., are the guests of Miss Myrtle Blanchard.

The Ladies' Aid society held a successful Christmas sale Friday afternoon.

Miss Jennie Bertram has been the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Sam- uel.

Postmaster Patrick Riley has moved the office of his new quarters in the Riley block.

Charles Perkins of the Riley block, who has been building a new house, is now ready to occupy it.

Herbert Williams of the Green and his daughter, Miss Inez are spending a few days in Hartford.

Will H. Grange.

Miss Elizabeth Burnett of Hartford will speak on Anti-Suffrage at the Grange Wednesday night.

Mrs. Walter Bartlett of Putnam spoke a few weeks ago on the side of Suffrage and was greeted by an interested audience.

Miss Burnett's address Wednesday evening will arouse perhaps equal interest. The meeting is an open one during the lecturer's hours.

Clayton Wright and Judson Barrows attended the Poultry show in Providence Friday.

J. H. Milligan has a new touring car.

Mrs. R. C. Rawson has returned from a visit with her son in Worcester.

Mrs. Herbert Hopkins has been at Oakland Beach for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mowry visited Neponset friends Sunday.

Mrs. James Kent and George W. Kent spent Wednesday in Norwich.

Miss May Moore of Westerly was a recent guest of Mrs. Timothy McCarty.

Mrs. Higgins Died.

Mrs. Andrew Higgins died at her home here last week after a long illness. She leaves her husband and a sister, Mrs. Woodcock.

George W. Kent went to Mystic Tuesday evening with the Danielson basketball team.

Harry Greenleaf of Pawtucket, R. I., and Norman Kennedy of Putnam were at Mrs. Addie E. Call's Sunday afternoon.

A. H. Bailey and family motored to Muncipal Valley.

The Cornhill worked mill is to have a new engine.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

a few days with her daughter in Boston.

The subject for the Y. P. C. U. next Sunday evening will be How Christianity Went to India. Leader, Samuel Murray.

The Hospital Aid society will meet next Tuesday.

Miss Anna Kegan of Rockville is taking the place of William Lash in the savings bank, the latter being ill.

Next Sunday evening at 7:15 Rev. Dr. Thomas, a returned missionary, will speak at the Baptist church on the work of the foreign field.

Mrs. Charlotte Damon, 80, died Thursday morning of pneumonia. The funeral was Saturday morning, Rev. L. B. Curtis officiating.

The past year has been the most successful in the history of the Stafford Young Men's club.

STORRS

College Team Defeats Emeralds—Book Club's Meeting—Holiday Sale, Farce and Lunch of Ladies' Circle.

Rev. W. H. Hayes of Oxford, Mass. preached here Sunday.

College Defeats Emeralds.

Monday evening the College basketball team played its first game of the season with the Emeralds of Willimantic, on the Hawley Armory floor, the college team winning by a score of 31 to 11.

Meeting of Book Club.

The Book Club met Tuesday evening in Grove Cottage. The program consisted of a paper, "The Book Club," by Mrs. Crane, a paper on the life of Mary Lyon by Miss Cora Grant and a chapter on "The Book Club" by Mrs. Edmond, in the absence of Miss Sprague.

Novelty at Christmas Sale.

Wednesday from 4 to 8 p. m. the Ladies' Circle held the annual Christmas sale at Grove Cottage. Mrs. Newton presided over the apron booth assisted by Mrs. E. O. Smith. Mrs. Martin sold novelties with the aid of Mrs. Burgess.

The garden was tended by Miss Mary, personated by Miss Lella Esten. The snappy little two farce was by Miss Stevens. Miss Swenson, Miss Wheeler and Miss Pierce as characters, was coached by Miss H. Hutchins. Lunch was served by Mrs. Esten. Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Savage, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Walden, Mrs. Brundage, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Hollister and Mrs. Judkins. The guessing booth held by Miss Noyes and Mrs. Davis, furnished a laugh when the prizes were given out.

BOLTON

New Organ for Congregational Church—Additional Shelves at Library.

Mrs. Charles N. Loomis and Miss Annie Alvord spent the week end in South Manchester, guests of Miss Alvord's cousin, Mrs. Louise A. Carpenter.

Mrs. Frances E. Ruggles is in Stratford, spending the holidays with her son, Carlos Ruggles, and family of Sherman street.

Miss Mary Westcomb spent Sunday in Suffield with relatives.

Mrs. E. P. Northam of Windsor avenue, Hartford, who visits in Bolton frequently, is in Florida for the winter.

Miss Doris E. Warfield returned Saturday to New York with her son, J. C. Hutchinson, for a visit at the latter's home.

Charles E. Carpenter has returned to South Manchester from a month's stay with friends in New Milford.

Eleazar Pomeroy of Windsor was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William C. White, the first of the week.

A firm from South Manchester has placed a new organ in the Congregational church. The old organ has been in use many years and the choir members are much pleased to have a new one.

New book cases have been placed in the Bolton library, the cases purchased a year ago being filled some time since.

WILLINGTON

There is one very large and handsome buck deer with enormous antlers left in the state, and he passed a part of Sunday afternoon under the ruselet apple tree near the barn at Maple street.

Miss Stella Hunt of Columbia is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Adeline Eldridge.

The funeral of little Caroline Jansen was held Tuesday afternoon. Rev. E. W. Darrow coming from West Hartford to officiate. The Sunday school and the district school sent flowers.

Burial was in the new cemetery extension. Much sympathy was felt for her uncle and aunt, Mrs. Jansen, with whom she has lived from infancy, and for her cousin, Mrs. Jansen, to whom she has been the same as a little sister.

Miss Mercereau went Tuesday to Hartford and New York for a week or two.

William Downs and family are moving to Tolland.

G. V. Smith is on a lecture tour in Maine, speaking on poultry farming and kindred topics at a series of farmers' institutes.

Mrs. Smith returned from New Haven Saturday.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Four Inch Ice on Lake—Rev. Chas. R. Palmer Invited to Preach Again.

At the special communication of Uriel lodge, No. 24, F. & A. M., this (Saturday) evening, there will be a special service. The lodge has been formed on the lake to a depth of four inches and skating is being enjoyed.

Several from this village have secured their 1915 automobile markers. A dozen or more members of Uriel lodge, F. & A. M., from this village were guests of Fayette lodge of Rockville last Saturday night.

Big Money Order Business.

The volume of the money order business at this post office is surprising. Money orders being issued for more than $1,800 during November.

Pleased With Preacher.

Rev. Charles A. Parker of Newcastle, N. H., preached here last Sunday and made a most favorable impression. The people here are so glad that he has been asked here again for next Sunday and expects to come.

COVENTRY

Most of the Grange Officers Re-elected—Coon Supper.

At the election of officers in the Grange Thursday night, W. S. Haven was elected master, Byron W. Hall overmaster, Mrs. I. F. Blake secretary. The other officers were re-elected.

Rev. Harold S. Winslow of Hartford occupied the pulpit last Sunday morning as a supply.

W. S. Green had a coon supper one night this week.

The Ready Helpers held their semi-annual banquet and election of officers Thursday evening. There was a full attendance.

A party from here attended the supper and sale at the Mansfield Depot church Tuesday evening.

W. S. Green is building a new garage.

August Hillman and family expect to spend the winter in Rocky, N. Y.

EAST WILLINGTON

Caroline Jensen Dies After a Brief Illness.

Caroline Jensen, aged 9, died early Sunday morning from blood poisoning, after an illness of a little over a week. The funeral was held from her home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in Willington Hill cemetery. The little girl rarely missed a Sunday from Sunday school and was loved by all who knew her.

Olin Wilson has sold one of his team horses to Blake of Rockville. Mrs. A. G. Baldwin expects soon to close her house here and return to her daughter's in Terryville for the winter.

Frank Walton, who works for C. S. Amidon in the steam mill in Tolland, was home for over Sunday.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Skinner and daughter Grace were guests of L. A. McPherson in Manchester Sunday.

M. W. Howard was a Hartford visitor Tuesday.

A number from this place attended the minstrel show in Andover town hall Friday night.

William Howard was at her home over Sunday.

William Strong of Wapping has been visiting at T. Skilling's.

Mrs. George Robertson of South Coventry has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of South Manchester were guests of N. C. Maine Sunday.

Washington County, R. I.

HOPKINTON

Tenant Officers Reappointed—Town Sells Old Saws for $125.

The school committee met at the home of the clerk in Hope Valley Monday morning with all the members and Supt. Henry J. Wheeler present. The tenant officers for the two voting districts, Daniel E. Blake and Henry H. Crandall, were reappointed. The clerk was authorized to receive bids to take the school census of 1916. Bids were ordered paid to the amount of $27.16.

Town Council Meets.

The town council met at the town hall Monday afternoon. Bids were ordered paid to the amount of $689.74. The bid of Charles P. Eccleston for the town of $125 was accepted. These bids will be released from use in the town clerk's office as soon as the records are placed in the new vault.

In the probate court the bond of Ernest L. Crandall and Henry H. Crandall, administrators on the estate of Jesse B. Crandall, and the bond of Augustus M. Bailey, administrator on the estate of Mary E. Bailey, were ordered cancelled.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of George E. Barber was received and ordered recorded and the widow was allowed $150 out of the estate for her support for six months.

Howard M. Barber was appointed administrator of the estate of C. Angelina Barber and Frank Hill was appointed appraiser.

The petition of Edward M. Tillinghast for the appointment of an administrator on the estate of Elizabeth S. Tillinghast was referred to Jan. 2d next with order of notice.

Notes.

Edward P. Dyer of Exeter was a business caller in town Monday afternoon.

A Christmas entertainment arranged by Mrs. Charles N. Kenyon will be held in the Second Seventh Day Baptist church Saturday evening, Dec. 25.

USQUEPAUGH

Edwin Anthony and sister of Providence were callers in this village Sunday.

A. B. Kenyon went to Arctic and Providence Tuesday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kenyon returned Sunday from Providence Sunday.

E. Briggs, who works in Providence, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. W. B. Wilcox and son Frank of Norwich spent last Thursday with relatives in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sutton were callers at Hope Valley Monday.

There have been several break and cases of petty thieving around here lately.

Oliver Watson of Waite's Corner was a caller here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Knowles and Mrs. Emma Woodmansee of Waite's Corner were callers here Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Kenyon visited Mrs. R. Barstow at West Kingston Monday.

Pierre, the oldest of the houses in the village, looking over the houses to be wired for electric lights, providing the owner, Mr. J. H. Kenyon, enough to get the line extended as far as Usquepaugh.

RICHMOND

The snow storm of Wednesday was expected by old residents here but contrary to expectations it did not go off by rain.

George F. Palmer was a business caller in Wyoming and Hope Valley the first of the week.

Fox hunters in this section claim that foxes are very numerous.

Edwin Smith, a recent visitor in Arctic and Crompton.

William and Thomas Tyler, former residents here, now living in Providence, and vicinity, were recent visitors at Monticello farm.

Mrs. George S. James who has been in for some time is able to be out and take some exercise.

Everett Moore has a large force at work building evergreen for Christmas.

ROCKVILLE